ANNOUNCEMENT

Annual Sale of Oriental Rugs

Begins Thursday, September 21st

We will open our Annual Sale of Oriental Rugs Thursday, September 21st, under the capable direction of Mr. John Peters of Boston.

Owing to the unusual conditions created by the war in Europe and in Asia, it is now impossible to renew stock of Oriental Rugs or to make calculations for the future. Fortunately Mr. Peters' close watch of the market enabled him to obtain his present large collection before the outbreak of hostilities, and we wish to state that there will be no increase in the prices while the present stock lasts. Therefore we advise our friends and patrons to attend this sale and BUY NOW. The prices will never be lower and they certainly will be much higher.

There are in this collection every size, weave and coloring, and a fine assortment of the smaller sizes which are so difficult to find now. Every Rug is absolutely guaranteed. Your discriminating inspection is most cordially invited.
